

2023 Corporate Membership Opportunities

574E Ritchie Highway #271
Severna Park, Maryland 21146

October 4, 2022

Dear Corporate Supporter,

I am writing to request 2023 Corporate Membership for the Kentucky Society of Clinical Oncology (KYSCO). Membership will be active from January 1, 2023– December 31, 2023. KYSCO works as a liaison between our oncology providers, state and federal lawmakers, corporate members, and the payers. Whether it is in the form of educational meetings or our web-based resources, KYSCO strives to create effective methods to facilitate education, advocacy, communication, and a sense of community among our members. The Society has two main meetings annually. Attendees include medical oncologists, hematologists, pharmacists, practice managers, nurses, billers, and other office personnel

KYSCO is a non-profit 501 (C)(6) organization, tax ID 74-2975601, whose mission is to promote excellence in the care of patients afflicted with cancer and hematologic disorders. The Society represents oncologists and hematologists and provides a number of services to our members, including educational seminars on topics and trends in cancer care, Medicare updates and improving practice efficiency. All oncologists, drug and equipment manufacturers and allied companies who contribute to the care of oncology patients have a commitment to providing the best possible care environment for patients and in educating those involved in cancer care.

To achieve these goals, we need the support of companies like yours. A list of corporate membership levels and corresponding privileges is attached. Please contact us with any questions or requests for additional information.

LOBBYING NOTICE: KYSCO is a Section 501 (c) (6) nonprofit organization. As such, contributions or gifts to this organization are not deductible as charitable contributions for Federal income tax purposes. However, payments of membership dues are deductible for most members of a trade association under Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code as ordinary and necessary business expenses. Tax deductions, however, are disallowed as deductible to the extent of the portion of dues which are used by organizations for legislative lobbying. KYSCO has determined that 0% of your dues in 2023 are not deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
